

Revell aircraft kits typically have good surface detail that is somewhat accurate, while their interiors are basic. On this 1/48 scale kit, Revell got most of the surface detail correct including the rivet detail and the aircraft's lap joint and butt joint locations.

